QUANTA AT A GLANCE

VALUES

RIS

Our values were created by our team and we truly live by them every day, they are considered in every decision that is made and ensure we do right by OUR TEAM, clients and candidates.

As corny as it sounds, I feel so fortunate to be a part of a company that focuses so heavily on shared values; coming from an environment where I didn't feel valued as an individual, to Quanta where individuality is not only embraced but encouraged has been incredibly refreshing. As a company, Quanta is always picking up on these individual strengths and listening to our goals, then encouraging career progression pathways that support these.

- Emily Hobbs, Delivery Executive

OUR VALUES

We enjoy what we do

We are proud to be different

We value communication

Investment in OUR future

One team

WHY JOIN QUANTA

At Quanta, we believe in recognising success as a team, allowing talented people to progress without limitation and thrive in an environment that is as DYNAMIC as it is FUN.

Our 'One Team' ethos reinforces this focus on togetherness and as a result of our constant growth we are always seeking brilliant new people to join the QUANTA team.

We have created clear career paths for every member of the team, should they wish to progress in their role. We are proud to have been named a 'World Class' Company to work for by Best Companies in 2022. As well as ranking 11th Best Mid-Sized company to work for in the UK.

We are also proud winners of the 'Investment in People Development' Award at the 2022 Inspiring Herts Awards.

At Quanta the potential is uncapped in terms of both earnings and career progression. It is a collaborative culture where people are always happy to support each other and go above and beyond. It is not just a work place but an environment with lots going on whether that is charity events, social or sporting events.

ROLEOFA RECRUITMENT CONSULTANT

Recruitment Consultants focus on generating new business requirements and building long lasting relationships with clients and candidates. This is a 360 role, mainly focusing on generating new business, as well as searching for and selecting suitable candidates and working alongside the Delivery Team to ensure we provide excellent talent to our clients. By working this way our Recruitment Consultants tend to generate twice as much gross profit as consultants at other companies, and they don't split commission with the Delivery Executive.

Recruitment Consultants also work closely with the Contracts & Compliance Team for matters relating to tax and social costs if the contract placement is non-UK.

All Recruitment Consultants have access to their own LinkedIn Recruiter Licence from the day they start to support them with their business development. As well as an unlimited expense account to travel the world to build longstanding client and candidate relationships. In recent years team members have flown to North America, the Bahamas, all over Europe, the Philippines and India. Working as a Recruitment Consultant allows you to be in control of your own destiny. The harder you work the larger the reward.

At the same time, you have the opportunity to travel the world, work with clients to improve their business and throw yourself into a fascinating industry!

- Annabel Nangle, Recruitment Consultant

Our Learning and Development Team have over 40 years' recruitment experience between them, and they have created award winning training programmes for the whole team across the business.

This year we have committed to invest 6000 hours in training and will result in team members achieving their full potential and promotional goals.

This continuous learning and development means our top billers consistently bill over £1M every year and consistently hit and exceed their personal and professional goals.

Quanta genuinely lives by its values, we invest in our future! Since joining in November 2020 I have completed Fast Track to sales and future leader as well as MAPSTAR! All of these have supported my personal development, created the opportunity to challenge myself in a new exciting role and most importantly sharpened the divisions and my business winning skills to overachieve targets and increase earning potential!

> – Adam Chaumeton, Country Manager, USA

Recruitment was a new industry to me, so the regular training provided from Quanta has been fantastic and I've found my transition from a customer service background to be seamless due to the support offered.

CAREER PATH

At Quanta all career paths are clear and structured but your destiny is in your hands, see where the road from Recruitment Consultant can take you:

I joined Quanta in 2010 and ultimately accepted the offer because of the training and promotional pathways that were in place.

The promotional pathways are linked to specific milestones, and when met, you achieve your preagreed promotion. This process of clarity around promotions was refreshing and a real a motivator for me, this was something I never had in previous companies. I have worked my way through different positions at Quanta, all on the Business Winning side, and was promoted to Chief Sales Officer in 2023.

The journey has been fun, but has also been hard work, but my journey at Quanta has developed me both professionally and personally. Working for Quanta has also afforded me the opportunity to travel, visiting clients and candidates across Europe and the USA over the years and I am very excited to see what the future holds.

Ben Alger - Chief Sales Officer (CSO)
